A security deposit of fifty dollars ($50.00) is required for all new applicants. The full deposit is required to renew your space for the following year. Any damage to City property will be assessed against the security deposit at the end of the season. If the amount is greater than the security deposit, the applicant will be invoiced for the difference.

The City will retain the security deposit until notified by the applicant of his intentions not to return to the City of Rossford Marina.
