-The Rec Levies were discussed. The goal was to get a committee established in March, with fundraising to follow and the campaigning to take place in April. Ivan summarized the approach that was taken in 2009, the last year the levy was renewed. Input and ideas were provided on how to campaign this year.

-Brief discussion took place regarding the work on the Master Plans Ivan has been working on for the rec center and parks.

New Business

-Ivan stated that he is exploring and researching different guest policies of similar facilities in order to better deal with some issues and concerns that the current policy does not address well. He will present the rec board and city administration with several possible alternatives in the near future.
